

Art Submission Guidelines

Theme: The exhibition theme is drug addiction and recovery. Jurors will be particularly interested in seeing the person behind addiction and recovery. Artworks will be judged based upon how effectively, clearly and expressive this theme is explored in both content and visual impact.

Eligibility: Drawings, paintings, photographs, collages and graphic design will be accepted. Participants should be 18 years of age or older. The size of the art piece may not exceed 30 X 30 Inches in any direction.

Deadline for Receipt of Art: Thursday, June 16, 2011 by 4:00 pm

Entry Requirements: Participants may submit up to three artworks for consideration. The art pieces(s) should be submitted with:

- Entry Submission Form
- Artist statement: Participants should provide a brief statement (100 – 200 words) explaining the meaning of their artwork

Exclusions: The exhibition organizers reserve the right to exclude art that does not address the exhibition's theme of addiction and recovery, and/or is in any way offensive.

Honorarium: The top three finalists that best exemplify the theme in both content and visual impact will be awarded $300, $200, $100.
